Stewardship Reflection

Today's theme is perseverance – Moses keeping his hands upraised throughout the battle, Paul urging Timothy to stay with the task of preaching and teaching, and the widow appealing to the corrupt judge. To be faithful stewards of God's gifts, we, too, must persevere in the roles to which we are called.

PARISH OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED

On Wednesday, October 19th, staff will be attending a diocesan retreat. . Please keep us in your prayers.

All Soul's Day

Remembrance envelopes are located at the church entrances. To honor the faithful departed, fill in names in the spaces provided and include an offering if desired. These will be placed on the altar during All Soul's Day masses. Please turn in envelopes by Sunday, October 30.

All Souls? All Saints? What's the Difference?

All Saints Day is a solemn holy day celebrated on November 1st. This day is dedicated to all who have attained heaven. Although there could be millions of saints in heaven, we tend to focus on the canon of saints, recognized by the Church.

All Souls Day on November 2nd commemorates those who have died but may not yet be in heaven. We believe that through our intercessory prayer, the faithful departed can be cleansed of their sins. Masses for these days:

Focus on Faith Formation

Congratulations to the 12 teenage parishioners and 2 adults who celebrated Confirmation last Sun., Oct. 9th at the 11:00am mass with Bishop Joe Vasquez. The church was full of family, friends, parishioners and the Holy Spirit, as Bishop Joe preached a beautiful homily, providing loving spiritual guidance; "to always listen to the prompting of the Holy Spirit" as they go out into the world to live a strong Catholic faith.

Following Mass, everyone enjoyed a wonderful reception in the hall hosted by the Altar Society. Thank you to the all ladies for helping to decorate, bake cookies, make punch and cut and serve the cake. Thank you to the men who set up tables. It was a beautiful way to honor and celebrate these young people who became stronger in their faith through the graces of the Holy Spirit.

Upcoming Events in Faith Formation:

Please help our children as they begin this very important journey in their faith life. We welcome any baked items parishioners would like to donate for the sale. Children will be making and baking items in the school cafeteria during RE class time on Oct. 19th and Sat., Oct. 22nd, 9:00 am – 12:00 pm.
