Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today’s Gospel follows the encounter two disciples
had with the risen Jesus on the road to Emmaus, where they had recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread. Now, these same two disciples have returned to Jerusalem, to the Upper Room where the Last Supper took place. All of the Apostles are hidden there, staying out of sight for fear that those who killed Jesus will soon be coming for them.
Then and now, the resurrection of Jesus is disbelieved by some, and ignored by many.
However, for those who have faith in the Lord and lean on the cross of Jesus, the Resurrection becomes an anchor that preserves our hope, even,
and especially, during the darkest days of our lives.
In the sacraments, Jesus takes our fears away, the same way he did on the road to Emmaus and in the Upper Room. Like his disciples, we are then called to go and free others from their fears; by telling them
the Good News that Christ has conquered death.
May God continue to bless you all this Easter season.

Fr. Steve

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

The disciples in today's Gospel came to know Jesus in the breaking of the bread. When we share what we have with those who are in need, we, too, will discover Jesus in our midst.

APRIL CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

The USCCB has prepared a number of resources, including prayers and a special rosary to join us in solidarity to our brothers and sisters who are victims of abuse. The simplest of prayers are heard by God and our compassion for the abused is the sound we can convey to Him. For more resources for prayer, visit: <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/child-and-youth-protection/> A prayer from USCCB:

Heavenly Father who loves and cares for all of your children, especially the smallest and most vulnerable, we entrust to you the lives of the many children and vulnerable adults, who have been abused, and whose trust and innocence have been destroyed. Help us to hear their cries of pain and to take responsibility for so many broken lives. We pray that within their communities and families they may find understanding and support so that with the help of your grace their wounds may be healed, and they may again know peace.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who shared our weakness in all things but sin, and lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.

FOCUS ON FAITH FORMATION

When Jesus appeared to the disciples, they were frightened and did not recognize him. To help them overcome their fear and disbelief, Jesus has the disciples touch His hands and feet and asks them to give Him something to eat and eats in front of them. In this way, Jesus shows to them He is risen from the dead, alive in their midst and opens to them the total meaning of Sacred Scripture (“Christ had to suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that in His name, conversion and forgiveness of sins would be preached to all peoples.”)

Have you ever experienced unbelief and doubt of the presence of God in your life? How have you overcome it? Our mission is to be witness to God’s love revealed in Jesus. How are you witness to this love? What things in your life cast doubt on your faith? How do you defend against this doubt?
