

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 14, 2021

"Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away. But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone."

Considering the economic injustice experienced by the impoverished and the violence unfolding throughout the world, may our prayerful hope continue to be, as St. John Paul II implored on the centenary of Rerum Novarum, that "people learn to fight for justice without violence, renouncing class struggle in their internal disputes, and war in international ones" (Centesimus Annus, 23).
