Message from Bishop Vasquez

We are called to have faith in the risen Lord who will never leave us to face our challenges alone. His resurrection was not just a theological notion. It happened in the midst of the Church. All of the post-resurrection accounts in Scripture center on Christ appearing among us, even to the point of asking Thomas to touch his wounds. The very same thing happens to us each time we celebrate the Eucharist. Christ comes among us to live this life with and in each of us. May God grant us the courage and grace to preach the Gospel of Christ by what we say and in how we live each day.
