

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 8, 2023

The Parable of

The Wicked Tenants

The readings today challenge us to ask important questions about ourselves: What kind of tenants are we? Do we claim the vineyard of our lives for our own and turn God out or do we recognize that everything we have comes as gifts from God and is to be given back in praise? As we reflect on the gift of life and dignity given to each of us, how are we called to show greater respect for life: for the unborn; those on death row; the immigrants coming to our country with or without legal permission; enemies who kill others without regard? Where do we need to grow in love for the life and dignity of others?

I am very excited to announce that in the next few months we will be developing Choir Scholas. Initially we will practice in the Church getting the basic training and working to bring together a Youth Choir, Men Choir and Mixed Voice Choir for the 9:30 Sunday Mass.

Look in the upcoming bulletins for when we will start singing.

Anyone interested please contact me or the Parish Office.

James Mason, Dir. of Liturgical Ministries, (254) 773-4541.
